The Fifties

The year is 1952, and the directors of the newly formed Canadian Italian Businessmen's Association have asked Gioconda (Jackie) Rosati to create a volunteer corps of the members' wives to aid the immigrant families arriving from war torn Italy. It is then that Jackie plants the seed in the fertile ground of those willing wives and ...

A tree of good will and giving begins to grow.

The Eighties A time of Change for the Ladies' Auxiliary

The Canadian Italian Businessmen's Association has become the Canadian Italian Business and Professional Association and welcomes women to their membership.

The Ladies' Auxiliary is Still Strong and Adapts

- The Ladies' finalize their own Constitution
- The Ladies' obtain their own Charitable Number from Revenue Canada
- The Ladies' open their membership from only wives of the C.I.B.P.A. to all wives and women of Italian Heritage
- The Ladies' become Autonomous, retain their name, but remain on friendly and cooperative terms with the C.I.B.P.A. and have a seat on its Board
- The Ladies' celebrate their 30th Anniversary with the Famous People Players at the Royal Alexandra Theatre.
- The Ladies' start their tradition of highly professional and successful Fashion Shows.

Our tree is now deeply rooted and thrives on...

And, above all, Charity.

We started with charity to new Italian immigrants; we were strong supporters of Villa Colombo and Columbus Centre in their many programs. Now we have branched out to support needs in the mainstream Canadian Community.

Our many donations, totaling hundreds of thousands of dollars have extended, among others, to: Kidney Foundation, Star Fund, Children's Wish Foundation, Centennial Nursery School, C.I.B.P.A Bursary Program, ALS Society of Canada, York University Scholarship Grant, Daily Bread Food Bank, World Vision, Muscular Dystrophy of Ontario Toronto Chapter, Yellow Brick House, Pediatric Leukemia, Good Sheppard Refuge, Crohn's Disease Research, Red Door, Youth Link, Covenant House, Coro Italia L'Aquila, Canadian Marfan Association, Carmelina's House, Ovarian Cancer Research, Italian Earthquake Relief, Humber River Hospital, Heroes in Black,
